2011 Annual Vines

subject to availability

Most annual vines are easy, rapid growers and provide a quick cover on fences & structures that need some summer camouflage. For a quick & simple vertical presence in the garden or large container tie together 3-4, 6-8' bamboo stakes teepee style. Try mixing different varieties together. All prefer full to partial sun a minimum of 5-6 hours or a little afternoon shade. Talk about a lot of bang for your buck ! Here are some of our favorites:

Cardinal Climber vivid crimson funnel shaped flowers attract hummingbirds. We love the finely cut foliage, 8-12'.

COBEA Cup & Saucer attractive foliage and big bell shaped flowers in August change from green to purple, 8-12'.

Cypress Vine delicate crimson tubular flowers with lacy green foliage, 6-12'.

Hyacinth Bean bronze purple leaves, violet flowers, translucent purple pods, a favorite, 6-12'.

LOPHOSORUM 'Great Wine Cascade'. We like it in hanging baskets but can easily be trained on a vertical trellis. Flowers are wine red trumpets resembling azalea flowers.

MANDEVILLA a tropical with funnel shaped large pink, red or white flowers. Likes the heat, 4-6'.

Mina Lobata late blooming, arching sprays of exotic tubular red and yellow flowers, 6-12'.

Moon Flower green heart shaped leaves and large white flowers, open at night, 10-15'.

Morning Glory the classic annual vine 'Heavenly Blue' with sky blue 4-6" trumpets and our favorite. President Tyler an early blooming heirloom variety with Purple 6-12'.

Scarlet Runner Bean a hummingbird favorite with scarlet flowers edible beans best if harvested just as beans start to form in pod 6-8' keep pods picked for continual bloom.

Sweet Pea fragrant old fashion vine 4-6' like a sunny site with a cool rich soil best amended with lots of compost pick flowers to keep vines producing.

THUNBERGIA Black-eyed Susan Vine 6-8' twining vine with soft yellow flowers and a dark eyes. Blooms all summer- great in containers and mixes well with other colors. We also offer 'Orange Beauty'. Also make great hanging baskets.
